OLD BUSINESS

Marty Nicholas, Norm Mowles, Randy Stene and Irene Stene met with Joan Carrigan and Jason Wall of the WDM. They are interested in setting up an affiliation with our car club. We will meet at a later date to get more details.

NEW BUSINESS

A discussion was held to determine if we pay our fees to the museum as of March 31 or August 1 because we were locked out until today due to Covid protocol. A motion was made by John Boehmer that we pay our dues starting August 1 and our yearly dues will be paid on Aug 1 from now on. Seconded by Dave Brock, Carried

Bob McGuire is wanting to step down from his position as merchandiser. We are looking for any volunteer to take his position.

Al Willms gave us an update on the upcoming Swap Meet to be held October 9th in Hall B at prairie land park. An ATM and concession will be added this year. There will be a car corral outside. There are still spots open for vendors to purchase tables and trailer spots indoors.

Jeanette Holder announced that there will be a memorial car show held in Kenaston for her late husband on September 5th.
