TREASURERS REPORT

In Dave Brock's absence the treasurer's report was read by Lloyd Minion.

ITEMS ARISING FROM THE MINUTES

Paul gave a presentation of the 2020/2021 financial statements.

The presentation of the 2022 budget is tabled to the next meeting.

An audit of the books will be conducted by Curtis Blixt (Al Wilms son-in-law). Curtis is a Chartered Accountant that works at Cameco.

Our new SAAAC representatives are Marty Nicholas and Jerry Lupul. The next SAAAC meeting will be held April 10, 2022 at the Town Hall, Davidson.

The WDM Affiliate Member policy or strategy meeting was held on March 15th with Ray Fribance, Luc Vangool, John Boehmer, Paul Collyer, John Moffat, Marty Nicholas and Lloyd Minion in attendance. A good group discussion was held about a pre-emptive move to pitch the best case scenario for the SAAC. The history of the WDM relationship, membership perks and the promotion of our club as an affiliate was discussed. Our continued support of the Western Development Museum programs through volunteering/ assisting when called upon and membership fees was also a topic. A final document will be prepared and reviewed by the executive committee.

OLD BUSINESS

Norm gave a brief presentation on the upcoming swap meet. There have been changes made at Prairieland Park. Norm will find out the particulars at the meeting he has scheduled with them next week. There are still a few volunteer shifts to fill.

Dan Reid painting sales are continuing. He has achieved $5000 in sales in which will be sent to Sask Polytechnique as a Dan Reid memorial over two years,, There will be $2500 per year in which $1250 will go to autobody technician and $1250 for auto mechanic. He has sent a current inventory of prints left to sell. Please check it out on our website.

They are still accepting entries for the Draggins Car Show. Norm will see if we can all park together as a group. They are still in need of a few more volunteers.

NEW BUSINESS

Garage tours season is upon us. After the next meeting a garage tour is scheduled for Rod's Hotrods showroom. Let Norm know if you have any suggestions, or are willing to host a garage tour.
