Friday June 28, 2019 Venues

Fort Carlton: Fort Carlton was an important hub for the Hudson's Bay Company (HBC) from 1810 - 1885. Located on the North Saskatchewan River and with easy access by land, this site was an ideal place to warehouse goods and gather provisions for other posts. An important negotiation site for Treaty Six in 1876, Fort Carlton was accidentally burned down during a hasty evacuation that took place during the Northwest Resistance of 1885. <https://www.tourismsaskatchewan.com/provincialpark/1809/fort-carlton-provincial-park>

Duck Lake Museum: Experience life from days gone by at the Duck Lake Regional Interpretive Centre - from the every day struggles of the Pioneers, to the devastating impact that the near extinction of the buffalo had on the First Nations, and to the harsh aftermath of the North West Resistance for the Metis. <http://www.ducklakemuseum.com/>

Batoche National Historic Site: Journey back in time to talk with a 19th century Métis settler about life on the banks of the South Saskatchewan River. Imagine the shocking changes as the troops and warriors gathered and battle began to rage. Witness the bullet holes at the final battlefield of the Northwest Resistance of 1885 and learn more about how a traditional way of life changed forever as a new country began to form. <https://www.pc.gc.ca/en/lhn-nhs/sk/batoche>

SaskTel Saskatchewan Jazz Festival: Cars and Guitars Show and Shine: The Saskatchewan Jazz Festival Inc. is an international jazz festival that fosters, promotes and presents jazz music in its diverse forms to the people of Saskatchewan. <https://www.saskjazz.com/>

Broadway Avenue Shopping: Mixing culture with commerce, Broadway offers a unique experience for locals and visitors alike. Small yet mighty, this five-block district is recognized as the birthplace of arts and culture in the city of Saskatoon. Home to the city's trendiest restaurants, coolest specialty shops, and best entertainment venues, Broadway has had years of practice nurturing creativity and vibrancy among its community members. Broadway offers the perfect space for creatives and entrepreneurs to collaborate. A fusion old and new, Broadway offers the ultimate village experience. <https://broadwayyxe.com/bid/>

Quilting option: If you are a quilter, we are arranging for you to visit several of our lovely quilt stores in Saskatoon. The number of stores visited will depend on how many are interested and how long you would like to browse the stores.
